OUR PURPOSE

FIRST: To train our students to become bookkeepers and business managers in the shortest possible time, at the least expense, and at the same time give them such general training as will furnish a foundation upon which to build a business future.

SECOND: To instruct our students efficiently and to inspire them with a desire for clean lives, noble ambitions and good citizenship, and also to obtain positions for those who graduate, and thus give them a start in business life. Our efforts, however, do not end here, but extend to the placing of old graduates in better and more lucrative positions.

THIRD: To be equitable in all our relations with those who patronize our school, and to continue to merit the confidence of the business public.

Angles of position of contacts of shadow with Moon's limb: first, 93° E; last, 134° W; from north point.

The calculations for this Almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia, and are expressed in Eastern standard time. For places not on the standard meridian and standard time is kept, the following rule applies: For places west of the 75th meridian, add in the proportion of four minutes for each degree of difference of longitude; for places east, subtract. For moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, simply reduce from Eastern to required standard.—A. THOS. G. APPLE.

GREETING.

With all good wishes for a new year of blessed service in the Master's kingdom, this forty-seventh issue of the Reformed Church ALMANAC is presented to its 35,000 patrons. A careful study of its record will quicken our courage and increase our gratitude.

THE PROGRESS OF THE KINGDOM.

Contrary to the opinion often expressed by individuals and the secular press, facts and figures show that the Church of Christ not only maintains its hold on the faith and love of the people, but that it is growing in numbers, in power and in benevolence. Church membership, church attendance, and gifts to the church are not diminishing, but increasing.

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST IN THE UNITED STATES.

According to the U. S. census in 1890, 32.7 per cent. of the population were members of the Christian Church. In 1906, the percentage was 39.1. In that year, out of a population of 85,000,000, 32,936,445 were communicant members of the Church. Of these, 43.1 per cent. were men, 56.9 per cent. women; 20,297,742 were Protestants and 12,709,142 were Catholics. There were invested in church buildings $1,250,000,000. From 1890 to 1906, new churches were erected to the number of 50,308: an average of 62 new churches a week, or 8 new churches for every single day during the past sixteen years. The American people are Christian by an overwhelming majority.

THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

The progress of the Reformed Church is best shown, not by mere assertion, but by the use of facts and figures.

MEMBERSHIP AND CONTRIBUTIONS.—In 1890 there were in the Reformed Church 835 ministers, 200,498 members; $160,078 were contributed for benevolence, and for congregational purposes, $874,053. In 1900, the number of ministers was 1,077; members, 239,930; benevolence, $205,509; congregational purposes, $1,114,473. In 1910, we have 1,737 ministers; members, 293,836; benevolent contributions, $452,911; congregational purposes, $1,787,983. Since 1878, we have doubled our membership. Since 1871 we have doubled the number of our ministers. In ten years we have doubled our contributions to benevolence. Our contributions for the average member for benevolence is $1.54; for congregational purposes, $6.08; for all purposes, $7.62 per member. The average growth of all Protestant Churches during sixteen years is 69.6 per cent. That of the Reformed Church is above the average, and is 70.2 per cent.

HOME MISSIONS.—In 1889, the English Home Mission Board had 48 missions and an income of $17,995; in 1889, 90 missions and $25,973; in 1909, 118 missions and an income of $77,700. The increase in the German work was proportionate. Besides this, in twenty-three years, the Church founded 230 Church Building Funds, worth $132,000.

THREE REFORMED VETERANS WHO DIED DURING 1909.

REV. FRED. A. RUPLEY, D.D.

REV. B. BAUSMAN, D.D.

REV. T. C. LEINBACH.

story: In 1890, the Reformed Church had in the foreign field 6 missionaries and the receipts were $20,000; in 1900, 12 missionaries, receipts, $34,000; in 1910, 32 missionaries, receipts, $100,000. Besides this, we have splendid schools in China and Japan.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.—Twenty years ago the number of Sunday-schools was 1,583, with 3,967 officers and teachers and 138,616 scholars; total, 142,583. Ten years ago, the number of officers and teachers numbered 24,770, and the scholars, 182,134. The present statistics are 1,715 schools; 26,444 officers and teachers, 261,511 scholars, a total enrollment of 287,955. In ten years the gain has been 202 schools, 22,477 officers and teachers, 122,895 scholars.

EDUCATION.—Space prevents more than a hint at the progress of the Church along this line during the past twenty years. At Lancaster, the Seminary has gained three new professorships, a new Seminary building and Library, and an increased endowment. Franklin and Marshall College has a new Gymnasium and new Library, a new Science Building, a new Academy building, thirty additional acres of ground, an increased faculty and an increased endowment. Heidelberg University has a new building and a largely increased endowment. At Dayton, the Central Theological Seminary, a union of Ursinus and Tiffin, is housed in its own building. Ursinus College has increased its faculty, its campus and has improved its finances. Catawba College, in North Carolina, has remodeled its building and has increased its faculty. Allentown College for Women has entered on a new era of prosperity. During the same twenty years, Mercersburg Academy, the Woman's College at Frederick, and Massanutten Academy at Woodstock have been founded. All the schools of the Church have a constantly-growing number of students.

THE INTERNATIONAL CALVIN MONUMENT AT GENEVA.

During the Calvin Celebration at Geneva, Switzerland, July 2-10, 1909, the corner-stone of the international monument to Calvin was laid. The monument, the architect's design of which is reproduced on the next page, is built against the old rampart of Geneva. The old portion of this wall was built with the approval of Calvin as a defense against the Roman Catholics, the Spaniards, the Dukes of Savoy and other enemies of the Reformed city. The monument has been designed by a Hungarian architect. In the middle will be the figures of Calvin and his three most renowned co-laborers, Farel, Beza and John Knox. On either side will be bas-reliefs of the contemporary Reformers, Viret of Lausanne, and Froment of Geneva. Further, on the left side, will be life-size figures of Coligny, William the Silent and Frederick William, of Brandenburg, who adopted the Calvinistic Reformation, and the ancestor of the present German emperor. On the right side will be figures of Roger Williams, Oliver Cromwell and Stephen Bocksy, prince of Transylvania. In addition to the other inscriptions, and above them all, will be the motto of Geneva, "Post tenebrae lux"—"The Darkness is Past, the Light Shineth."

A CLASS OF CATECHUMENS OF THE HUNGARIAN MISSION AT HOMESTEAD.
In the rear are the figures of Rev. A. Harsanyi, the pastor, and his wife. One hundred children have been confirmed in this mission since its organization, in 1903.

THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH.

The mission of the Church is Missions. We have come to realize that the Church is not merely an ark of safety into which the sinner may run and be safe, but a force in the redemption of the world. Its mission is not to make saints, but servants. We have come to realize that sainthood is attained only by service. The cause of Home Missions must certainly appeal to every right thinking individual. Upon it depends the stability of our country, the protection of our firesides, the peace and prosperity of our individual lives. By all that is near and dear to us, we are called upon to do greater work for the Master in the homeland.

The Reformed Church at present is supporting 190 missions. Of these 120 are English. We have 21 missions west of the Mississippi River. Nearly all of our missions are located in large and overcrowded cities. Nine of these missions are among foreigners in this country, principally among the Hungarians. Our German brethren have about 70 missions in different parts of the United States and in Canada. Our missions contributed last year more than $16,000 for benevolence, and the whole Church gave for Home Missions $100,000 per year.

Two missions reached self-support during the past year, namely: Colon, Michigan, and Grace, Altoona, Pa.

TWO MISSION CHURCHES WHICH BECAME SELF-SUPPORTING IN 1909.

A FEW FAIR QUESTIONS.

1. Do you know what the Board of Home Missions does?
2. Has your congregation a Mission Study Class?
3. What is your Classical Committee on Missions doing?
4. How many Home Missionary Bulletins are read in your congregation?
5. Is your apportionment for Home Missions paid in full?
6. Do you think that $100,000 a year for Home Missions is much for over 200,000 English people to pay?
7. Do you know that one-tenth of the benevolent offerings of the Church come from our missions?

8. What is a Church-building Fund, and how is it used?

9. Do you read the church paper, so as to know how the kingdom is coming?

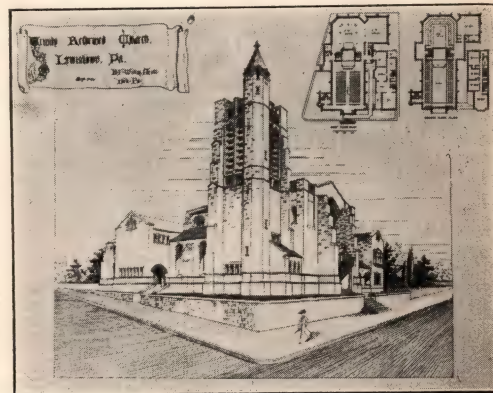

10. Most of all, do you really feel interested in saving souls?

During the quarter including Easter, 1909, the income of the Board of Home Missions was nearly $41,000, the largest ever received in three months. Let us try to do this again in 1910.

The Church-building Fund Department, which is twenty-three years old, has 230 Church-building Funds, representing a money value of more than $132,000.

THE LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT.

The General Synod at York commended the Laymen's Missionary Movement and instructed the Board of Foreign Missions to take steps to enlist the laymen of the Church. Dr. W. E. Lampe was appointed temporary organizer. A preliminary conference was held at Harrisburg, December 15, 1908, which was attended by fifty-three prominent laymen from fourteen Classes. A temporary Executive Committee was elected and a convention planned for. At the convention, also held in Harrisburg, March 16-18, 1909, there were present 706 laymen and pastors from thirty-four Classes. These men are now actively engaged in propagating the movement in their respective Classes.

The Permanent Executive Committee of fifteen members provided for by the convention, is nearly complete and the General Committee of representatives from each Classis is now being made up.

A National Missionary Campaign is being conducted under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, conventions being held in about sixty of the principal cities of the United States. The campaign will culminate in a National Missionary Congress in Chicago, May 3-6, 1910. The places and dates of the conventions in which our Church is most interested are:

Buffalo, October 16-19; Cleveland, October 21-24; Washington, November 11-14; Baltimore, Nov. 16-18; Philadelphia, Nov. 18-21; Harrisburg, Nov. 22-24; Reading, December 1-3; Pittsburg, January 20-23; Dayton, January 25-27; Cincinnati, January 28-30; Louisville, February 1-3; St. Louis, February 4-6; New York City, January 9-16; Wichita, February 18-20; Kansas City, February 24-27; Denver, March 2-6; Lincoln, March 15-17; Omaha, March 18-20; Sioux City, March 22-24; Milwaukee, April 5-7; Indianapolis, April 12-14; Chicago, May 3-6.

Some of the largest givers of the denomination are to be found among the missions; the one at Johnstown Pa., and Christ church, Pittsburg, Pa., averaging more than $26 per member. Most of the missions in the Interior Synod averaged more than $1 per member for benevolence.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, REFORMED MISSIONARY LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT.

Many of our people to-day are remembering the work of the Church in their wills; and very beautiful is this last act of an earthly life, setting aside "the Lord's portion" of a Christian estate

OUR NEEDS ON THE FOREIGN FIELD.

In Japan we need chapels and missionary residences. Only a few of our preaching places in Japan have chapels. A chapel can be built for three hundred dollars and upward. A missionary residence, including lot, will cost about three thousand dollars.

There are five cities in so many provinces where we should locate as many foreign missionaries. It will require at least five thousand dollars for necessary buildings at each station. The annual support of a missionary is about two thousand dollars.

At Yochow we need: (1) A Girls' School Building, costing about $6,500; (2) Street Chapel, costing about $1,200; (3) Boys' School Outfit, costing about $1,000; (4) Boys' School Chapel, costing about $2,000; (5) Boys' School Teachers' Dwelling, costing about $1,500.

We should have two physicians and two nurses, instead of one, for the Hoy Memorial Hospital. A lady physician is also a necessity.

At Shenchow we need: (1) Two teachers for the Girls' School; (2) One teacher for the Boys' School.

Dr. Kelly says: "We are continually turning away those who come for treatment. Another doctor and a second nurse are necessary."

Send for a copy of "Our Missionary Policy" to the Board of Foreign Missions. It sets before the Church as the goal of its endeavors the evangelization of a population of ten millions, and that the offerings should increase until the annual income will be one million dollars. Such a policy will help to widen the horizon of the Church, set before it a distinct task, and kindle a zeal that should lead to obedience on the part of every pastor and member in our Church.

THE TURN OF THE TIDE.

By death and dismissal the Reformed Church, during the last year, lost 24 ministers. But the Church Register for 1910 shows 41 new names. Of these, 27 graduated from our schools and were licensed by the churches. The reports from the Classes show that 235 students for the ministry are in the various schools of the Church. This is a gain over last year of 23. In 1904 the number was only 161. Over this gain the Church should rejoice. Only we must remember that these students are scattered over the four Classes in college and the three classes in the seminary. Some of these will not graduate for seven years to come. There is an average of only 33 for each year. Our average loss is 24 per year. Whilst we are thankful that more students are preparing for the ministry than in recent years, let us face the fact that the supply is not yet equal to the demand.

Every local church sometime during the year should take an offering for the relief of disabled ministers. The Church should give to these men who have exhausted their strength in her service, not the small sum of $50 or $75, but $200 or $300 a year.

Some of our Reformed families have a history running back into Colonial days. Of the members of these families we may justly inquire: How many of your sons have, during the last one hundred years entered the ministry? "The Register of Ministers" is the Reformed "Roll of Honor."

BEAUTIFUL MEMORIALS.

The Greeks had a word which said an act was at once good and beautiful. Such a word is needed to describe the Memorials recently erected by several of our churches in honor of those who served them as ministers, not only long, but faithfully and well. Record is here made of four such, in the hope that others may follow. A few years ago the churches of Shamokin and Ashland established the "Rev. Dr. Rudolph Duenger Church Building Fund," in memory of one who long served them in holy things. Two years ago, the Missionary Society of Emmanuel's Reformed church, Hanover, Pa., founded the "Rev. Dr. K. Zieber Church Building Fund" in honor of a former pastor. Soon after that St. John's Church, Allentown, Pa., founded the "Rev. Dr. Samuel G. Wagner Church Building Fund," in honor of one who was their pastor nearly forty years. Last year the Evangelical Reformed church, Frederick, Md., celebrating the 35th anniversary of his pastorate, gratefully established the "Rev. Dr. Edmund R. Eschbach Church Building Fund."

"THE USE OF MONEY."

There is a sermon extant on this subject, by Rev. John Wesley. The three heads of the sermon are,—
1. Get all you can; 2. Save all you can; 3. Give all you can. That is orthodox Christian doctrine.

DON'T BE A BEGGAR.

"They take pleasure and pride in supporting their church. They are ever ready to do what is needed. We never beg. We simply state the needs, and our people respond generously," said a Reformed pastor of his people. That describes a church in normal health. We are always happy when we support ourselves by our own exertions. Still happier are we, if supporting ourselves, we can lend a hand to others less fortunate. We like to count one and be of some use besides. To be a beggar and to have a beggar's spirit is degrading. It is none the less in the Church. No self-supporting church member will be content to let others pay for him or let others do his work. The worst of all tramps are those who in their church shirk their duties and never render any services.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH AND PARSONAGE, SOMERSET, PA., REV. HIRAM KING, D.D., PASTOR.

WHAT YOU HAVE GIVEN AWAY.

What I spent that I had;
What I saved that I lost;
What I gave that I have.

What we need in the Western Missionary District is an increase of ten missions in ten other large cities. This we should aim to do.

The children of the church are not being properly educated unless they are being taught to read the best paper of the Church to which they belong.

It is important to read your Bible and your church paper. The one tells you what God did in the past and the other tells you what He is doing now.

Many towns in North Carolina hold out fine advantages to the Reformed Church. The following are a few of those in which missions should be established at once:—Gibsonville, Lincolnton, Landis, Kanapolis and Marion.

INDIVIDUAL Private Communion Service

For several years there has been a demand for a Private Communion Service embodying the individual idea. Pastors frequently are called upon to administer the Lord's Supper to members who desire to commune with the person who is sick, and it often happens that they must pass from one house to another in administering private communions, and the conveniences are not always at hand to cleanse the cup.

The need of a thoroughly sanitary private communion service has been recognized for a long time by manufacturers of communion ware, but how to make a service practical in size and arrangement proved rather difficult of solution. Recently we were called into consultation on the subject with one of the leading firms in Philadelphia, and the services offered for sale embody the practical ideas of pastors and manufacturer.

THE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

ALLENTOWN, PA.

CONTROLLED BY THE EASTERN SYNOD.

THIS INSTITUTION offers its advantages to any young girl from eight years on who comes recommended by her Pastor—irrespective of denomination—and her former instructor. Under a Faculty composed entirely of College Graduates, the following courses are offered: a strong Preparatory and College Course and special courses in Art, Music, Elocution and English.

Parents who desire to send their daughters to a home school will do well to acquaint themselves with the advantages this school offers to prospective patrons. The individual instruction and personal attention given the student is the secret of the culture, the refinement, and the mental equipment of the graduates. "What has the girl become?" is the criterion by which we judge our work.
